

Openbank is giving 3% back on pension plan transfers and offering 1% for new investments

- The bank is offering a payment of up to €3,000 which will be paid in the first half of March 2025.
- Customers can choose from over 40 pension plans with five different asset managers.

2 October 2024

Openbank, the 100% digital bank of the Santander Group, launches its pension plan campaign, which is paying 3% for transfers into any of its currently marketed pension plans, up to a maximum amount of €3,000. Openbank is also offering 1% back for additional contributions and new investments.

All customers and non-customers who wish to take part in the promotion must register using the code PLANES24 via the bank's website or app by 8 January 2025 (inclusive) and make a transfer and/or contribution between 1 October 2024 and 17 February 2025 (both inclusive). The payment will be made during the first half of March 2025, provided that the investment position is maintained for five years.

Today, Openbank has one of the most innovative and comprehensive investment platforms on the market with products for any investor profile. The bank's product offering includes a range of over 3,000 funds from over 150 asset managers, an open architecture system with over 40 pension plans from five different asset managers, and a broker that facilitates the buying and selling of over 5,000 stocks on the main stock markets worldwide.